R.A.F. DAKOTA DOWN IN SEA: THREE MISSING

The Weather

To-day's forecast:—North to north-easterly winds, mainly fair to fine.
Yesterday's temperature:—Maximum: 61 degrees at 3 p.m. Minimum: 54 degrees at 8 a.m.

R.A.F. PLANES AND UNITS OF THE ROYAL NAVY ARE SCOURING THE SEAS FOR THREE MISSING OCCUPANTS OF AN R.A.F. DAKOTA WHICH CRASHED INTO THE SEA IN THE VICINITY OF HAINAN ISLAND SHORTLY AFTER 9 O'CLOCK YESTERDAY MORNING. SIX OTHERS ON BOARD ARE SAFE.

THE DAKOTA, WHICH LEFT KAI TAK FOR SAIGON AT 7.10 YESTERDAY MORNING, CARRIED A CREW OF FOUR AND FIVE PASSENGERS. FIRST INDICATION THAT ANYTHING WAS AMISS ON BOARD THE CRAFT CAME AT 9.06 A.M. WHEN A DRAMATIC S.O.S. MESSAGE FROM THE PLANE WAS PICKED UP IN HONG KONG.

The message said the plane was running on only one of her two engines but that she hoped to make Sams.

This was the last message received from the ill-fated plane which shortly afterwards crashed into the sea somewhere off Hainan Island.

Two destroyers and a frigate were rushed to the scene from Hong Kong directly news of the disaster was received, while a third naval vessel, a sloop, which was in the area, was diverted by radio to the vicinity.

Three R.A.F. Sunderland flying-boats and two Dakotas took off from Hong Kong to join in the search but all the planes returned without having sighted either the wreckage or survivors.

CLINGING TO DINGHY

It fell to the Navy to pick up six survivors. News of the rescue was received in the Colony at 9 p.m. from the destroyer H.M.S. "Tenacious".

"Tenacious" wireless that she had picked up six of the occupants who were clinging to a rubber dinghy. The destroyer was guided to the scene by flares fired by the survivors.

"Tenacious" carries an M.O. and excellent sick bay facilities. Naval units are continuing the search for the three missing, and R.A.F. planes were expected to be sent out from Kai Tak again during the night.

TO HELP MACARTHUR

Seven government officials and a university professor proceeded by plane from San Francisco for Tokyo to assist General MacArthur in the allied economic control policy in Japan.

The group, headed by Corwin D. Edwards of the State Department, includes Robert M. Hunter, Ohio state university law professor, Robert B. Hawkins, federal trade commission, Benjamin B. Williams, tariff commission. The group will submit a report in about three months.—Associated Press.

Notorious Gangster Killed In Escape Bid

MACAO, JAN. 4. WONG KOON-KIT, NOTORIOUS CHINESE GANG LEADER WHO WAS SUSPECTED OF PIRACY, PLUNDER, MURDER AND COOPERATION WITH THE JAPANESE, WAS KILLED HERE LAST NIGHT IN AN ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE FROM POLICE CUSTODY. HE WAS KILLED ALMOST INSTANTLY BY POLICE GUNFIRE. WONG KOON-KIT WAS ONE OF THE MOST NOTORIOUS WARTIME CHARACTERS OF MACAO. CRIME AND INTRIGUE WERE ATTRIBUTED TO HIS WELL-ARMED GANG BY THE AUTHORITIES, BUT HE REMAINED FREE UNTIL CHINESE GUERRILLAS OR COMMUNISTS LURED HIM ASHORE AND CAPTURED HIM WITH SEVERAL OF HIS HENCHMEN LAST MONTH AT PO ON, NORTH OF HONG KONG.

He had left Macao after being wounded in a set-to with Portuguese police in the war's final days. The incident followed a tense period when Wong Koon-kit and machine-guns set up in his Macao residence.

The Chinese captors negotiated with the Macao authorities and eventually turned the fugitive over to them and his trial had been awaited here with great expectancy.

The anti-Japanese guerrillas, who captured Wong Koon-kit, announced recently that he and his aides "were to be sentenced to death," but at the same time they announced that the little band was being turned over to the Macao authorities.

—often labelled Communists—wounded captured Wong Koon-kit, who was sentenced to death, but at the same time they announced that the little band was being turned over to the Macao authorities.

One crime about which Wong Koon-kit was certain to have been questioned closely, if he had come to trial, was the massacre of 20 persons last June 23 aboard the vessel of Wong Kau, well known and popular Macao resident who was one of the victims.

The slaying of Wong Kau was believed to have been in retribution for his smuggling of four American airmen out of Macao while the Japanese and Wong Koon-kit gang members were keeping a close watch for them.

It was after this bloody incident that Wong Koon-kit's Macao residence began bristling with firearms.—Associated Press.

U.S. BUSINESS OUTLOOK

Washington, Jan. 4. The Government looks to the new year for a flood of new consumer goods, which so far have attained only half the expected volume. Some officials predicted that by mid-year civilian output will hit a rate equal to the booming output of 1940, which was well above the pre-war year of 1939.—Associated Press.

TWO YEARS' EXTENSION

New York, Jan. 4. The British Radio has announced that the Soviet Union and Finland have signed an agreement granting Finland a two-year extension for her payments of war damages to Russia. Finland may now take seven years to settle the matter.—Associated Press.

GOING BEGGING

Montevideo, Jan. 4. The executor of Mrs. Teresa Engelbrecht's estate has asked the government to help him persuade the government to take $70,000 in letters to the papers, he said Mrs. Engelbrecht left the sum to the government to be used for hospitals but "for four months all efforts to get the government to accept the money have been fruitless"—Associated Press.

DARING RAILWAY ROBBERY

RELATED REPORTS FROM CANTON TELL OF A DARING ROBBERY ON NEW YEAR'S DAY ON THE CANTON-YUEN-TAM SECTION OF THE CANTON-HANKOW RAILWAY, IN WHICH 50 BANDITS GOT CLEAN AWAY WITH A HAUL ESTIMATED AT SEVERAL TENS OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN MONEY, JEWELLERY AND GOODS.

It appears that the usual passenger train with four coaches packed to full capacity left Yuen-tam at 5 p.m. for Canton; and about an hour's journey out the train was brought to a sudden halt as the result of the derailment of the first wood tender. The bandits who were lying in wait at this point immediately opened fire with machine guns and revolvers and the passengers were thrown into a panic.

All the passengers were ordered to alight and they were stripped of all their money and belongings. The bandits then made a thorough overhaul of all the goods and luggage on the train, after which they beat a hasty retreat.

It was then found that the rails had been loosened at this point, and as the train could not proceed owing to the derailing of the firewood tender, a message was got through to Canton and the passengers were brought to Canton by a relief train the next morning.

MACAO. SHAKES JAP. CABINET

TOKYO, JAN. 4. THE SHIDEHARA CABINET CALLED AN EMERGENCY SESSION FOR 10.00 A.M. TOMORROW TO DISCUSS THE DRASTIC ALLIED DIRECTIVE TO PURGE THE CABINET OF MEMBERS WHO LED JAPAN INTO THE WAR.

There is no indication as yet that the new policy decreed by Gen. MacArthur would cause the cabinet to fall, but five members may be subject to removal on the basis of the terms of the directive.

Tokyo newspapers interpret the Allied Headquarters move to give Japan new leaders. The "Yomiuri Shimbun" declared that Allied Headquarters have found it necessary to leave such a directive because the cabinet is not acting on its own initiative. Its editorial commented that the cabinet must take action voluntarily.

The "Yomiuri" said that the Emperor should give attention to the problem of new leadership for the country and initiate remedial steps before the government is ordered by the Allied command.

The cabinet met today with Gen. Shidehara who is ill with a cold. It announced that the directive was not received in time to be translated for its meeting. Instead the Ministers discussed the national budget.—Associated Press.

BANKING PROSPERITY

Washington, Jan. 4. United States banks entered 1946 with increased deposits, low interest rates and plans for financing reconstruction and "consuming" purchases. Bank of America and other associations predicted continuing financial prosperity.—Associated Press.

COMMUNISTS REPLY General Marshall Accepted As Mediator

CHUNGKING, JAN. 4. CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAVE ACCEPTED GENERAL SIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S OFFER TO CALL IN GEN. GEORGE C. MARSHALL, AMERICAN SPECIAL ENVOY TO CHINA, AS MEDIATOR IN THE NATION'S CIVIL STRIFE. COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES HERE ANNOUNCED THEY AGREED IN GENERAL WITH CHIANG'S PLAN TO HALT HOSTILITIES, BUT THAT THEY WERE LAYING DOWN SPECIFIC CONDITIONS.

THE FORMAL COMMUNIST REPLY FROM YENAN WAS HANDED TO DELEGATES AT THE THIRD FORMAL MEETING WITH CHINESE GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES SINCE THEY FIRST GOT TOGETHER ON DEC. 21.

Chou En-lai, leader of the Communist delegation, attended the conference after a half hour conference with General Marshall. He had previously conferred with General Marshall on New Year's Day.

The principal Communist objection to the Government's proposals is believed to be on the clause providing for restoration of railway facilities. The Communists have expressed no feeling on that point, but Chinese quarters in close touch with them say they fear that if railway communications are restored, the Government, despite undertakings to the contrary, might try to move troops along the rail lines.

The Communists, it is predicted, will stand firm for unconditional cessation of hostilities before the restoration of rail communications and other questions are discussed.

MANY RUMOURS (It was noted that in an Associated Press dispatch from Yen-an yesterday, in which the Communists said "We will discuss favourably every suggestion dealing with the immediate cessation of civil war in China and the establishment of unity and democracy," they did not mention the rail issue but did make numerous accusations about Government troops continuing their offensive actions in the north.)

The atmosphere in Chungking is thick with rumours and suspicions. Communists believe that the Government intends to get a solid grip on Communist-dominated Jehol province before the unity conference opens on Jan. 10.

They attribute to the Government disloyal plots and intrigues. The latest charge is that the Government has been showing down Communist communications between Chungking and Yen-an so as to delay matters and thereby give more time for the Nationalists to try to dislodge Communists from Jehol. The Communists say

YENAN, JAN. 4. COMMUNIST REPORTS STATE THAT GOVERNMENT ARMIES ARE ADVANCING INTO MUKDEN AND SECURING THEIR LEFT FLANK BY CUTTING THE COMMUNIST-BELD RAIL LINES IN SOUTH-WEST MANCHURIA.

Reviewing the military situation, Eighth Route Army headquarters said that three divisions of Chiang Kai-shek's 52nd Army and two divisions of the 13th Army have occupied Pechen and Hsienan in West Liaoning province.

A sixth division was said to have taken the Insung Junction on the Peiping-Mukden rail

Protest On Grand Scale

SEOUL, JAN. 4. WITH LEADERS URGING SUPPORT OF THE DECISIONS IN MOSCOW, TENS OF THOUSANDS OF KOREANS TO-DAY STAGED A MASS MEETING PARADE.

Shouting support of the leftist "People's Republic," they ignored the wintry weather. Speakers at the mass meeting criticized the Kim Il-sung faction, asserting that it misled the people in the last week-end trusteeship demonstrations.

The current demonstration was promoted by two major leftist parties, the People's Party led by Lyuh Woon Haeng and the Communist Party led by its secretary-general Pak Hoon Young.

The military police estimated that the total number of people attending the meeting exceeded 100,000, and weather discouraging more.—Associated Press.

Holding Out

Tokyo, Jan. 4. Still more illegal military equipment has been found by occupation troops. Japanese civilian concerns in an outgoing prefecture on Honshu were discovered to have 35 Japanese army trucks and 26 tanks in various stages of repair and some meteorological equipment. Associated Press.

Macao Boat Aground

PROMPT ACTION BY A NAVAL PATROL BOAT YESTERDAY PREVENTED WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN A TRYING TIME TO SOME 140 PASSENGERS ON BOARD THE KIN HWA, A SMALL MOTOR BOAT PLYING BETWEEN HONG KONG AND MACAO.

While on patrol the naval craft intercepted an S.O.S. message at about 6 p.m. The message was sent by the No. 3 Commando station on Lantau Island, where the boat had run aground.

Two naval patrol boats proceeded at once to the distressed ship, which was leaking badly at the bow. It had run aground in shallow water.

The passengers were transferred to the naval craft and landed at Hong Kong last night.

Tragedy In Harbour

A THREE-YEAR OLD BABY WAS DROWNED LAST NIGHT WHEN AN AMERICAN NAVAL MOTOR-BOAT RAMMED A SAMPAH OPPOSITE THE TUNG ON WHARF AT ABOUT 8.30 P.M.

At the time of the mishap there were 11 persons, including two sailors on the sampah. The sampah was capsized by the impact, throwing all the occupants into the water.

The master and mistress of the sampah suffered shock from immersion and were taken to the Queen Mary Hospital. One of the American passengers in the sampah suffered more serious injuries and his condition was believed to be critical. He was also taken to Queen Mary Hospital.

Launch Fire

Severe damage was caused yesterday to the steam launch "Long Kau," lying alongside the Lun Chung Wharf, next to the Vehicular Ferry Wharf, when fuel oil aboard caught fire, shooting up pillars of flame that were visible from Kowloon.

An appliance from the Central Fire Station was summoned at 6.54 p.m. and a fire broke out in 22 minutes. The "Long Kau" is a steam launch of 45 tons.

THE AGE OF SCIENCE London, Jan. 4. Sir Stafford Cripps, president of the Board of Trade, yesterday urged broader facilities for expanding British scientific research. STORY CURIUSER AND CURIUSER

ADOLF HITLER'S SECRET PAPERS REVEALED TO-NIGHT THAT "IMPORTANT ENGLISH CIRCLES" CONVEYED A PEACE FEELER TO A REPRESENTATIVE OF RUDOLF HESS A MONTH BEFORE HESS FLEW TO ENGLAND AND CAPTIVITY FIVE YEARS AGO ON A VAIN MISSION TO END THE GERMAN-BRITISH WAR.

DR. ALBRECHT HAUSHOFER, HESS'S INTIMATE ADVISER, SAT DOWN AT OBERZALLBURG ON MAY 12, 1941, WITHIN 48 HOURS AFTER HIS FRIEND'S DEPARTURE, AND WROTE THE FUEHRER A FULL ADMISION OF HIS OWN ROLE IN PEACE OVERTURES WITH, HE SAID, A PROMINENT SWISS OFFICIAL OF THE INTERNATIONAL RED CROSS AS INTERMEDIARY.

This 1,400-word confidential report which is in possession of the allied intelligence, listed more than a dozen names of "notable" Britons, mostly titled, with whom Haushofer believed approachment possible.

The report stated that Haushofer as early as September 1940 wrote a letter to the Duke of Hamilton at Hess's request in an attempt to establish "contact."

It attributed to a "moderate group in England" a readiness in April 1941 to talk peace on a three-point basis:

Recognition of Britain's paramount interest in Greece but only nominal interests elsewhere in eastern and south-eastern Europe.

Restoration of occupied western Europe and confinement of German colonial demands to former German territory, and Modification of Italian demands.

Haushofer was executed in Berlin by the Gestapo last year for possible implication in the July 20 bomb plot against Hitler and a new secret negotiations through Swiss channels, according to deposition taken from German witnesses by Doctor Edmund A. Walsh, Vice-President of Georgetown University.

DEATH WARRANT

In effect, Haushofer's 1941 report to Hitler was his future death warrant. It marked him in the Gestapo records as having "sympathetic feeling and contact with English."

Entitled academically "English Connections and the Possibility of their Employment" the report warned Hitler "this controversy with Hitlerism is regarded by the masses of the English people as nothing less than a religious war, with all the fanatical psychological effects of such an attitude. If there is anyone in London eager for peace then it is the element of plutocracy, while the foreign, above all the Jewish element, already has effected a junction with America and the Dominions.—Associated Press.

MARRIAGE

The marriage will take place at St. Patrick's Cathedral, Melbourne, on January 10th, 1946, of Miss Christine Corra, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. H. Corra, an officer, B.S., and Mrs. R.M., son of Mr. & Mrs. R. Corra, of Chislehurst, Kent, England.

THE HAWKER PROBLEM

The complaint of a correspondent about the clutter of hawkers about the streets of Hong Kong and Kowloon raises an issue that has long needed ventilation. For obvious reasons, when there are no checks or restraints, obstructions by street vendors are particularly bad in the immediate vicinity of the Colony's principal thoroughfares. Such obstructions should, however, be relatively easy to deal with. They form but a small part of the bigger problem which is much less easy of solution. It is, of course, one of the legacies of trouble left in the wake of the Japanese occupation. When Hong Kong fell thousands of Chinese found themselves deprived in a night of their means of livelihood, and in the next three years the Colony's economy was reduced to the degree usually described as "the taking in of each other's washing." Many thousands made their way back to the country. Those who stayed behind eked out an existence as best they could, selling their trinkets, their furniture, finding an odd job now and again, or they collaborated. Inevitably, those with a few resources found the career of hawker the readiest solution. During the Japanese occupation, a remarkable array of professions and trades contributed their quota to the hawker fraternity. In fact, it is a permissible exaggeration to state that practically every other man had to become a hawker or a "broker" to get by. Many of them have, since the return of the Colony to British administration, been able to return to their old jobs, but the number of hawkers in ratio to the population is still extremely large, probably four or five times as great as pre-war, and large enough to constitute a public nuisance. Steps are being taken to re-establish the system of licensing hawkers, and that, together with steps to prevent obstruction of the main thoroughfares, offers the only final remedy. It is, however, likely to be a long process, the sorting out of those to be granted licences and those to be refused, and the process of reduction of numbers is one which should, in any case, in the special circumstances, be undertaken carefully and progressively. Economic conditions have not yet improved to the extent where ruthless elimination is justified or desirable. What can and should be done immediately, however, is the institution of some measure of control of vendors who set up stalls on pavements, across roadways, on busy corners, in such a way as to create a serious nuisance. While the authorities are about it they can, at the same time, send the ricksha coolies back to their rinks, and allot more appropriate waiting places for bicyclists and tricyclists. We were discussing law without order in these columns a few days ago. These are just a few minor, but nonetheless important, instances of a noticeable lack of orderly behaviour about Hong Kong to-day which cannot be allowed to continue indefinitely.

Bishop Hall On Problem Of Youth

"The whole question of youth in this city seems to me to be more important than ever before," said the Rev. Bishop R. O. Hall at a dinner given last night by the directors of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. at the Cafe de Chine to the benefit of the Association and the captains of the financial drive now in progress.

Mr. Lam Chi-fong presided and among the guests present were Rev. Bishop Hall, Mr. Yung Sui-fong (chairman of the Tung Wah Hospital), Mr. Ma Ping-sun and Chong Shing-cheung, together with Messrs. Lai Yui-kin, Lam Pui-chung, Hui Kwong-chiu, Li Pook-wo, Poon Ching-yee and Chan Tat-sher, captains of the Drive.

Supporting the chairman were the following directors of the Association: Messrs. Watt Lok-hing, Lee Kai-sun and Wong Man-fong. After Mr. Lam Chi-fong had given a short account of Y.M.C.A. activities and the need of funds to carry on the good work, Bishop Hall stressed the importance of the education of youth, particularly at this time. The war, he said, had interrupted the education of children to a considerable extent even in free China where many had been cut away from their parents and spent most of the time working about money for food.

RECEIVED GOODS FROM U.S. SAILOR

Wong Chung-to, tailor and laundressman of No. 32, Hankow Road, was again brought before Mr. C. Y. Kwan at the Summary Military Court, charged with receiving stolen property from an American sailor who broke into a godown at West Point on Dec. 8. Mr. P. C. Woo appeared for the defence, while Inspector F. Nolan presented.

Mr. Woo submitted that the property was left on his client's premises by the American sailor concerned against his client's consent. His client had made every effort to locate the sailor, but could not find him. Though he had aided and abetted in disposal of the articles, it did not amount to a charge of receiving.

After hearing the submission, Mr. Kwan returned a verdict of guilty, and committed the accused to the gaol for 14 days. The court gave the option of a fine, which was refused. Sentence of four weeks' hard labour was imposed.

CORRESPONDENCE

Rackets

Sir, With reference to the article re racketeering of Chinese rickshaws appearing in your paper, this is only one of the racketeering activities.

The Rice Deposits have the racket of collecting 20 cents from the queue before they are allowed to enter the shop to buy rice. The long queues for bread, cheese and butter at the Dairy Farm and at Lane Crawford's are composed mostly of hooligans or those agents who, after purchasing a loaf at $1.00, $5.00 and $5.00 respectively in the streets. Many of the goods these days are like markets. As an example the neighbourhood of the ENSA Theatre is more like a market than a residential district.

SPECIAL CRAFT IN RIVER MINESWEEP

SPECIALLY CONVERTED LANDING CRAFT ARE BEING EMPLOYED BY THE ROYAL NAVY IN PART OF THE OPERATION TO SWEEP THE CANTON RIVER FREE OF MINES. THE SHALLOW DEPTH OF THE RIVER PREVENTS FLEET MINESWEEPERS FROM PERFORMING THE WORK AND MOTOR LAUNCHES ASSISTED BY MOTOR FISHING VESSELS ARE ALSO BEING USED.

THE OPERATION IS BEING DONE AT THE REQUEST OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT.

Extensive sweeps are being made to clear both moored and magnetic mines. It is intended to provide a channel through the Urmaton Road approaches and the Bocca Tigris minefields and the Second Bar and Upper Reaches to Canton. The provisional date for the completion of the first phase of the operation is Jan. 15 but adverse weather conditions and technical difficulties have hampered the work.

The landing craft are dealing with magnetic mines, believed to have been laid by American aircraft. These flat bottomed vessels are able to penetrate the shallow areas and are in effect doing the work of fleet minesweepers on a miniature scale.

When the obvious difficulties of sweeping the river were assessed, plans for adapting the landing craft were formulated within a week, the conversion being carried out in a further seven days.

It is necessary to sweep the magnetic mine fields four times to ensure the complete clearance of the area. The alternative magnetic field, by which the mines are activated, is created by a cable, 1,550 yards in length. The cable is trailed on the surface of the water in the form of a giant U, each end being attached to a landing craft which tow it across the sweep area while moving in parallel, two hundred yards apart.

The cable has a nine inch circumference and is fed by Diesel generators supplying 700 amps. The craft were thoroughly tested to ensure that they, themselves, did not act as magnets to attract the mines; the crews meaning the vessels are volunteers.

The clearance of moored mines is being carried out by motor launches which also act as escorts for the magnetic sweeps to prevent junks and sampans fouling the cable.

Until the operation is completed river traffic remains virtually at a standstill. The only Canton-Hong Kong shipping at present consists largely of junks whose shallow draft and wooden bottoms are not likely to come into contact with ordinary mines or attract magnetic mines.

Several ships which have ventured to make the voyage have not with disaster. The proposed channel passes close to the

Girl's Evidence In Menaces Case

The case in which three Chinese are accused with demanding money with menaces from an ex-Japanese employed detective, Chau Ming, was continued yesterday before Lt. Nigel.

Mr. R. E. Smith, prosecuting, called as his second witness Miss Wong Kwai-ying.

Miss Wong testified that on Dec. 11, she saw the complainant, Chau Ming, with five men. Chau's car was bleeding and his coat torn. She asked them what was the matter and was told by the third accused, Li Pui, to go away. She followed them into the Kowloon Cafe where a Chinese soldier asked complainant for $250.

A revolver was pointed at complainant and when he said he could give only $100, the soldier struck him with the revolver. They finally agreed to accept $50. Complainant was taken to a money-lender at Wan Tsai Wai Road to obtain the cash.

Chau returned with the money and handed it to second accused, Lam Sang. The next day was fixed for handing over the balance at a bicycle shop in Arzvie Street. On Dec. 12 she was asked by complainant to meet the gang. She went first to Mongkok police station and took some detectives with her, and the three accused were arrested in the shop.

Yung Sik of the bicycle shop at No. 61, Arzvie Street testified that the three accused were arrested by detectives. He said the soldier was not present. He said the soldier, testified that the Chinese soldier, armed with two pistols, was arrested in Kowloon City on Dec. 12. Miss Wong fed the police to the arrests on both occasions.

The case was adjourned till Jan. 9 at 2.30 p.m.

Z.B.W. Makes Broadcasting History

Z.B.W. is creating broadcasting history in Hong Kong to-day. From 8.30 p.m. to approximately 8.45 p.m. to-night the station is relaying two scenes from the Noel Coward play "Billie Spirit" which is being presented by John Gielgud and his London company under the auspices of ENSA at the Star Theatre, Kowloon.

This is the first time in Hong Kong's history that any such broadcast during an actual performance has been attempted, and preliminary test promise that the broadcast will be entirely successful.

This relay of an actual stage performance is only made possible by the courtesy of ENSA and the sacrifice agreement of Mr. Gielgud and his players.

For the benefit of those who are not familiar with the play, there will be a short introductory explanation leading up to the actual part of the play to be relayed.

Z.B.W. Hong Kong is also requested to remind the public that a special matinee performance of "Billie Spirit," open to all, will be given this afternoon at the ENSA Star Theatre at 2.30 p.m. In aid of His Excellency to Commander-in-Chief's Welfare Fund. A few tickets may still be available at the Theatre Booking Office between 10 a.m. and 12 noon to-day.

R.A.F. DANCE

A very successful "all ranks" dance organised by 5207 Squadron Royal Air Force was held at the Diocesan Girls' School last night. Among those present was the Commanding Officer, Squadron Leader H. Cronshaw.

The hall had been tastefully decorated by an enthusiastic committee and an up-to-date selection of music was rendered by the Pacific Melody Makers.

A well-run buffet under Sergeant E. Ackroyd was very much appreciated. The duties of M.C. were effectively carried out by W/O. C. Porter of 5207 Squadron.

Theft From B.A.T. Godown

The godown of the British American Tobacco Company at Kennedy Town prison was broken into during the night of Dec. 30, and 110 rolls of cigarette paper valued at $3,000 were stolen from the premises.

As a sequel, two unemployed Chinese, Lo Wing and Tang Sing-hung, were charged before Mr. C. Y. Kwan at the Summary Military Court yesterday.

According to Inspector F. Nolan who prosecuted, an iron bar of a window in the godown was sawn and 110 rolls of cigarette paper were removed. The value was $300 per roll. As a result of enquiries made by the Police, accused were arrested and 57 rolls of paper recovered.

Both accused pleaded guilty and were sentenced to three months' hard labour each.

Eviction Applications Before Tribunal

ON THE GROUND THAT IN HER ABSENCE THE PREMISES SHE OWNED WERE OCCUPIED, WITHOUT CONSENT, A LANDLADY, LEUNG SAM-MUI, BROUGHT AN APPLICATION FOR EVICTION AGAINST THE TRESPASSERS AT THE TENANCY TRIBUNAL AT THE SUPREME COURT BUILDING YESTERDAY.

The application, made against Kwok Man, the principal tenant of No. 31, Yiu Wa Street, first floor, was heard by a tribunal comprising Messrs. R. Childe, Hon. Man-wai and Yu Tak-lant.

Leung Sam-mui, following the fall of Hong Kong, entered the Rosary Hill Red Cross Home when it was opened in 1943. Later, in 1944, she went to Macao where she stayed until October last year when she returned to the Colony. On her return she found Kwok Man, the opponent in the case, in possession of the premises.

Leung stated in evidence that during the whole period of the occupation she had no agent or rent collector acting on her behalf. She had not entered into any tenancy agreement and had received no rents from opponent.

Cheung Hoi-tung, nephew of the applicant, testified to the service of notice to opponent on Dec. 12 last.

The opponent was not present in Court, and an order of eviction, within seven days, was entered by the tribunal.

RENTAL FIXED

An application for variation of rents was heard before the tribunal comprising Messrs. Henry Leong, E. Abraham and Capt. A. M. Rodriguez.

The applicant in the case was Mok Lay-lan and the opponent, Chan Chun-hing, tenant of the ground floor of No. 28, Tsing Fung Street.

Mok stated that he had been a tenant since 1942. In October and November last year he paid rents of $30. On Nov. 23 he received a letter from opponent asking $70 for December. Applicant said he refused to pay this as she considered it too high. The premises were not in good condition.

Lee Hing-tai, wife of the opponent, produced old rent receipts showing the rent in 1941 at $70 per month. Witness stated that the rents were previously collected by a relative who did not know the pre-war rents.

An order fixing the monthly rental of the premises at $70 was made out by the tribunal.

Another case was settled before the same tribunal on the application of Mok Lay-lan against Chan Chun-hing, of No. 28, Tsing Fung Street, for eviction against Mok Lay-lan, of No. 28, Tsing Fung Street, for eviction against Mok Lay-lan, of No. 28, Tsing Fung Street.

Batavia Fires

About 500 in south-eastern Batavia were made homeless by the spectacular fire which broke out in the native quarter shortly after a large crowd of Indonesians had stormed the Dutch-Ambonese civil police station.

Dutch police officials said the assault was repulsed.—Associated Press.

Pickpocket's Large Haul

With the large influx of service personnel of all classes and the population daily on the increase, Hong Kong's colony of pick-pockets have again started their trade of prying on the unalert.

The addition of these "light-fingered gentry" have been on the increase lately and it is suspected that some work in organised gangs.

"Working" in the more crowded areas they have victimised more than one serviceman. One of their happy hunting grounds is in the areas near the ferry wharves where there is usually a congestion.

In this area, Wong Ho, 30, a taxi of the Tin Lee Company, No. 130, Des Voeux Road Central, had his pocket picked of $4,000 while purchasing a ticket on the Kowloon side of the Star Ferry Wharf at 5.10 last evening.

The Police stated that they are aware of these activities, warning that pick-pockets are even to be found on the ferries. Measures are being taken to curb these activities and the public is asked to co-operate and report any such loss.

PERSISTENT

Wong Puk, 34, was sentenced to six months' hard labour by Mr. C. Y. Kwan at the Summary Military Court yesterday for a breach of the Deportation Ordinance by returning to the Colony after being banished for life.

Accused was arrested at the Race Course in Happy Valley by Inspector F. A. Ewins on information, on New Year's Day.

Defendant had three previous convictions for a similar offence.

Wong Wal, cigarette hawker, was arrested for having in his possession 23 packets of military issued cigarettes. He pleaded ignorance when summoned before Lt. Nigel yesterday at Kowloon. The cigarettes were confiscated and accused acquitted.

Chinese Play For Forces

The Chinese Entertainment Organisation for the Forces, which began its activities a few weeks ago by giving Chinese films to 21 servicemen daily, will present a special performance of a Chinese play for the Service at the Ko Shing Theatre on Tuesday, Jan. 8, at 8 p.m.

The title of the play, in English, is "The Punishment is Death." It will be acted by a company of Chinese artists and will be produced in the traditional Chinese manner.

Servicemen will be able to understand the plot of the play by means of specially-printed programmes and there will also be interpreters seated around the theatre, to answer questions and explain details.

The Ko Shing Theatre, which has a seating capacity of 1,000 persons, has been handed over entirely to the Service for the evening and admittance is free.

Tried Once

The "San Francisco Chronicle" in an editorial to-day, urged caution in consideration of any proposal to place Manchuria under a multiple occupation of Chinese, American, British, Russian and French forces.

The "Chronicle" discussing a Shanghai report that such a regional trusteeship is being considered, said: "We already have the example of the point in rule of Germany."

"Up to now it has not been very successful. If a joint trusteeship is worked out and no success is achieved in Manchuria, we should be guilty of imposing upon that unoffending country a period of stalemate and resultant maladministration.—Associated Press.

Inter-Allied Divergencies

Saigon, Jan. 3.
The political and military picture in Indo-China looks like a Balkan puzzle with subtle Oriental complications and inter-allied divergence of aim and purpose.
It shows the Chinese disarming surrendered Japanese north of the 16th parallel and leaving unmolested the Anti-French Viet Minh Government seated at Hanoi. The British, meanwhile, are preparing to withdraw after disarming the Japanese south of the Demarcation Line, halving the country, while the French forces spread their reconquest area outside Saigon against hostile harassment of the Annamites.

The French estimate that it will take several months to recover their colonies and protect border areas which formed the pre-war Indo-China Union. The Viet Minh slogan remains "Independence or Death."

It is only a question of time and the arrival of reinforcements before the French complete the subjugation of the Annamites in Southern Indo-China, where they gained their initial reconquest foothold in an alliance with the British. The Indian 20th Division entered the picture with the sole intention of disarming the Japanese, but they incidentally provided the French with their bridgehead to reconquest.

DIFFERENT PICTURE
The Chinese ruled North provides an entirely different picture. The French are leading with the Chinese in the hope of obtaining permission to re-arm 4,500 French troops who have been idling in the Hanoi Citadel since they were disarmed by the Japanese on March 3, 1945, and to return an equal number, with arms, from China, whence they fled in the wake of the Japanese coup.

The Hanoi scene is sharply in contrast in many respects with Saigon.
It has been calm in Hanoi since October 31, when Annamites shot some Frenchmen in an armed clash between the Viet Minh and the small rival Dong Minh Annamite faction. The clash was stopped by Chinese troops. The Dong Minh, described as leaning towards the Chinese Nationalists, were celebrating Sun Yat-sen's birth anniversary.

Another contrast shows that most of the Annamites have deserted their Saigon and Cholon homes, while in the Chinese-guarded national capital in North Cochinchina, approximately 15,000 French civilians stroll about with unarmed citizen soldiers, under the noses of the Annamite armies and the Viet Minh Government.

THE BYSTANDERS

The Chinese, concerned with disposing of 36,000 Japanese in the north, and the British, with 80,000 in the south, ostensibly are disinterested bystanders, keepers of the almost-forgotten former enemy.
Since the first French liaison

Singapore recently "satisfactory."
He expressed thanks to the

Noel Coward Englishmen Not Typical

Hollywood, Jan. 4.
At a time when producers are worrying about the British film industry and the English market, Dean Jagger returns from the Isles with some sound observations.

"Only 25 per cent of the studios in England are operating," Jagger said. "The others are being used to store foodstuffs. The studios that are working can offer no serious threat to Hollywood. Rather than compete, the English are trying to cooperate and learn from our industry."
He said the English are trying to adjust their product to the international market. "They realise that American comedy films are terrifically popular in the Isles, whereas British humour doesn't click here at all. They are trying to adjust that situation."

Jagger said the producers also are trying to correct the American impression that all Englishmen are of a type personified by Noel Coward. Associated Press.

TROUBLE BREWING IN INDONESIA

Batavia, Jan. 4.
British sources have reported that Indonesian Nationalist forces are assembling near Semarang, north of Central Java.
They add that the concentration suggests a possibility that the Indonesians are preparing a large scale attack in that area within a few days. The belief that an attack is imminent was highlighted by reports that Indonesians are clearing women and children from villages east of Semarang, but the British authorities express confidence of ability to meet the situation.

Minor disturbances occurred at Bandonee where a British warrant officer was killed by a sniper. Indonesian soldiers are also reported to have fired on Japanese troops in that area. Associated Press.

America Hit By Housing Shortage

NEW YORK, JAN. 4.
AMERICAN FAMILIES COMPELLED BY THE HOUSING SHORTAGE TO SUCH MEASURES AS TRIPPING UP IN FIVE ROOMS, LIVING IN VACANT STORES AND USING ONE ROOM FOR NINE PERSONS, ARE TRY-ING VERSE, CUTENESS AND PATIOS IN EFFORTS TO FIND BETTER PLACES TO LIVE.

Here is a sampling of advertisements inserted by frantic hunters in newspapers around the country, as shown in an Associated Press survey of housing conditions.

Albany, N.Y., ads post offers of from $50 to $500 for "information leading to rentals" and the wife of a local executive announced she would post a cash bond to guarantee that the three-bedroom house she sought would receive good care. An Albany, Ga., man advertised:
"Won't someone furnish door-stop for stark to light on?"
From Richmond, Va., came a plea: "Returned veteran, just married, sleeping in pup tent upon mother-in-law's lawn. Wife can't stand the cold, need 3 to 4 unfurnished rooms."

A lot of couples with children in most any town have echoed the desperation of these Salt Lake City notices:
"Will exchange two-year-old girl for furnished apartment.
Impossible to get one with her."
And, "We have a young son, whom we refuse to drown. Do you have an apartment?"
People who try to help out with available quarters usually find themselves literally overwhelmed. Associated Press.

Not To Be Overlooked

Paris, Jan. 4.
The official newspaper "Le Monde," commenting on the Anglo-Siamese peace treaty, stresses the restoration of Malayan and Burmese territories.
"This act," the paper adds, "will not pass unnoticed by the French."
The French have indeed not forgotten their country is also in a state of war with Siam and was compelled, in 1941, in spite of military success, to consent to the annexation of Indo-Chinese territory.
France, therefore, also has territorial claims against Siam.
The difficulties created by the Indo-Chinese events can in no way prejudice France's rights nor determination to have their rights respected. Associated Press.

igating commission would be sent

How Nazis Rebuffed The Vatican

NUERNBERG, JAN. 4.
THE NAZI GOVERNMENT RE-BUFFED VATICAN AT-TEMPTS TO HALT ATROCI-TIES AGAINST THE CATHO-LIC CHURCH IN POLAND IN PICTURED DOCUMENTS
MADE AVAILABLE BY AMERI-CAN OFFICIALS HERE.
Official communications between the Vatican and the Nazi Foreign Office showed that the Holy See got a rude brush off when it tried to bring these atrocities to the attention of Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop. The Foreign Office flatly refused to deliver the Vatican's letter to von Ribbentrop.
The Vatican protested to the Foreign Minister against the "unfriendly act."

Obviously angered by the Vatican's refusal to recognize German sovereignty in territories won by force, von Ribbentrop said, "Letters dealing with impossible situations are a waste of time and since (by implication) Rome has contested German sovereignty in occupied lands it could hardly expect the Reich to acknowledge Papal authority regarding religious matters in the same territories."

The protest declared the German Government was making it impossible for the Holy See to carry out its "divine mandate" to protect Catholics in occupied countries. Copies of this correspondence carried on in 1943 and made available recently by the Vatican will be used by Allied prosecutors in the trial of top ranking Nazis here. Associated Press.

Status Of Baltic States

London, Jan. 4.
Reuter's diplomatic correspondent writes: The official definition of the present frontiers of the Lithuanian and Estonian Soviet Socialist Republics in the Russian decree fixing constituencies in the forthcoming elections has again brought to the fore the question of recognition of the new status of the Baltic States by Britain and the United States.

So far, there has been no change in the British official attitude which in law does not recognise the incorporation of these territories into the Soviet Union.
In informed quarters in London
there is believed to be, at present, no sign that Britain intends to modify her attitude in the immediate future.

On the other hand, both Britain and the United States have accepted the accomplished fact by allowing the description of the Baltic States as Soviet Socialist Republics in the indictment of the Nuremberg trial, which is a Four-Power document. Reuter.

NO SHELVEING OF PERSIA PROBLEM

Washington, Jan. 4.
The State Department declared Thursday that it "is not engaged in any efforts" to keep Iran from placard its problems before the forthcoming United Nations assembly session in London.
The Department said it was taking note of reports from London that the United States and Britain were reported trying to prevent Russian-Iranian troubles from being raised as a major issue at the assembly meeting on Jan. 10.

Iranian Ambassador Hussein
Ala said his government would try to bring its difficulties before the assembly. Associated Press.

PEARL HARBOUR PREPAREDNESS

Washington, Jan. 4.
The Pearl Harbour Investigation Committee will resume its hearings to-day calling on Admiral Harold R. Stark.

Questioning is expected to be restricted to the Navy Board allegation that Stark failed to keep the Pacific Fleet Commander informed in 1941 of developments with regard to Japanese-American relations.
Stark had contended that sent "adequate information" to Admiral Husband Kimmel so that Pearl Harbour should have been on guard when the Japanese striek.
Associate Counsellor Gerhard said that the Navy was compiling Kimmel's testimonies at previous inquiries for submission to the Investigating Committee. Associated

"We use the Blackwood Convention, so North's bid of two and six diamonds were forced responses, showing one Ace and one King respectively. After the hand was over, South maintained that his bid of four and two no trump had made him 'captain of the ship'. Therefore, he claimed, North should have allowed six no trump to stand."

"North insisted that South's bid of five no trump was a Grand Slam invitation; and the bid of seven hearts was a gamble that the diamond suit was un-disrupted. South's support would supply whatever tricks South needed, show about 11, Aces?"

We think both are at fault, but that South was more to blame than North.
The minute South found out that an Ace was missing (because of the five-diamond response), he should have gone right to six no-trump. Such a bid would smack so much of finality, that North would be obliged to pass. The five-no-trump bid, as North correctly pointed out, conveyed the meaning that South might bid a Grand Slam if North could show enough Kings. But North still was wrong to bid seven hearts, since he could not be sure of the solidity of the trump suit even if South held the Ace of hearts. As a matter of fact, South's heart holding might have been headed by both Ace and King, and a trump trick would still have to be lost.

U.S. Awaits H.K. Exports

New York, Jan. 4.
In a review of the tung oil position in the United States, it is stressed that scarcity is due to the lack of Chinese supplies affecting the American, paint and varnish industry.
Seventy-five per cent of the Hankow pre-war exports, also 50 per cent of Hong Kong's came to the United States where the paint and varnish consumption was 100-000,000 pounds in 1937.

Consumption by the linoleum and printing inks trades is also large.
The United States tung oil postwar abnormal price is around the ceiling level of 30 cents per pound in drums, owing to the lack of imports. With the return of more normal conditions, large imports of Chinese tung oil are expected to dominate the market and prices may decline to around 17 cents a pound.

Meanwhile, southern United States is attempting to cultivate tung trees to compete with China, but the project is considered difficult. Reuter.

FASCIST ACTIVITY IN BRITAIN

Barrage Of Questions In House Of Commons

Mosley And Capt. Ramsay

LONDON, JAN. 5. SIR OSWALD MOSLEY, LEADER OF THE BRITISH UNION OF FASCISTS, WHO WAS RECENTLY RELEASED FROM DETENTION UNDER WARTIME DEFENCE REGULATIONS, WAS MENTIONED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS YESTERDAY.

ANSWERING A BARRAGE OF QUESTIONS, THE HOME SECRETARY MR. CHUTER EDE SAID HE WAS AWARE OF THE VERY PROPER HOSTILITY OF THE BRITISH PEOPLE TO FASCISM.

The Government was fully alive to all risks involved in a revival of Fascism. A law already provided safeguards against activities of all kinds and protected sections of the community irrespective of race or creed against disorderly or provocative conduct. A close watch was being and would be kept on any manifestations of Fascism, and the law would be strictly enforced.

Mr. Chuter Ede had been asked by Labour members if he was aware of the following matters:

That the activities of Fascists such as Sir Oswald Mosley and Capt. A. Ramsay, around whom "treacherous elements are being organised," were a menace to internal security, that their meeting in London last week was attended by 800 men and women who had been detained during the war in the interests of the State, that a press representative was violently ejected from the meeting because he was taking notes of a speech in which Mosley threatened vengeance against his political opponents; that later the same night the Lenin memorial in North London was defaced by Fascists, and that the headquarters of the Hitler worship cult known as the League of Christian Reformers had been raided by other citizens taking unofficial action.

POLITICAL MEETING
Mr. John Lewis (Labour): "Don't you think it possible in the public interest to issue a regulation whereby all political meetings should be notified to the police beforehand (Opposition cries of 'Gestapo!') so that in the event of Fascists deciding to hold a meeting with this male Pompadour strutting about the country in uniform we can take steps to stop it?"

Mr. Chuter Ede: "It would be very difficult to draft a regulation defining what a political meeting is. These people are not allowed to appear in uniform under regulations already in force."

Mr. Anthony Eden (Conservative): "Will the Home Secretary make plain that the suggestion by Mr. Lewis is not only difficult to handle in definition, but most undesirable?"

Mr. Chuter Ede: "Yes, I agree. I should not like to be informed every time the successor of the 1922 (Conservative) Committee is meeting."

When Mrs. Manning (Labour) asked if so long as meetings were private Mosley and his Fascists would have the right to corrupt the mind of any young person they invited to their party, Mr. Chuter Ede replied that he could not prevent people from holding private gatherings in this country. The whole question was one of great difficulty, he said.

TRUCULENT MINORITIES
"I am concerned that the liberal Government of this country should not be destroyed as abroad by armed and truculent minorities seizing power to which they were never invited by the majority in their country, but I should find it very difficult, indeed, to frame at the moment any act that would enable me to deal with it. I would ask people to preserve some sense of proportion."

Mr. Hugh Molson (Conservative) asked if the Home Secretary would resist attempts of the Socialist majority in the House of Commons to establish a Gestapo.

Mr. Chuter Ede replied that he had not heard any suggestion in that direction.

Mr. Thurtle (Labour): "In dealing with these people, will the Home Secretary bear in mind the long-established principle of British freedom of speech?"

Mr. Chuter Ede replied that he had that in mind, but pointed out that even the famous poet, Milton, laid it down in a great address to the House of Commons that where people aimed at extirpating free discussion they must be regarded as being ripe for extirpation themselves.

Replying to Mr. Tom Driberg (Labour), the Home Secretary said he had no intention that democracy should be overruled in this country by minority movements of this kind. He expected democracy to exercise a sense of proportion and not to flatter those people by making them appear more menacing than, in fact, they really were.

London, Jan. 4. Moscow radio said M. Andrei Vyshinsky, deputy foreign minister, will head the Soviet delegation to the United Nations general assembly on Jan. 10. Associated Press.

Manhunts

Dad Goolz, Germany, Jan. 4. United States army intelligence officers said that documents seized with Adolf Hitler's personal political statements provided fresh leads on the possible whereabouts of a number of long-sought Nazis leaders. They said manhunts have been launched in several Bavaria areas. Associated Press.

India Should Learn To Cooperate

Liverpool, Jan. 4. The Liberal Liverpool "Daily Post," commenting editorially to the departure of the Parliamentary Delegation to India, wrote: "In a speech on New Year's Day, Jawaharlal Nehru spoke dramatically of 'Asiatic nations holding together to meet their common enemy imperialism,' but only like charity begins at home."

"Mr. Nehru's ideal of friendly contacts between all Asiatic people is a very worthy one, since Asia contains a great proportion of the civilised population of the world. And the fact is that nowhere throughout East Asia can one today detect any evidence of co-operation or cohesion."

"Everywhere there are acute political divisions. In India these divisions are acutely bitter and politicians like Nehru ought to face the facts realistically instead of ignoring them and blaming Britain for the resultant situation."

"Perhaps the Parliamentary Delegation with its various shades of opinion will help to appreciate the need for co-operation and compromise."

"If it does anything in that respect it will have done a great service to India and the world."

Ensa To Finish By Late Summer

LONDON, JAN. 4. PLANS FOR WINDING UP ENSA WERE DESCRIBED YESTERDAY BY DIRECTOR BASIL DEAN. HE SAID: "AS FAR BACK AS APRIL OF THIS YEAR I SUBMITTED PLANS TO THE AUTHORITIES FOR THE GRADUAL REDUCTION OF VARIOUS BRANCHES OF OUR SERVICE. THESE PLANS WERE EVENTUALLY ADOPTED."

Mr. Dean said: "Large scale economies are being effected in all departments except cinema entertainment. Responsibility for this will be handed over to a new army cinema organisation as soon as it is ready to undertake it."

All entertainment in factories ceased in November. Symphony concerts for workers will cease at March 31, 1946, on which date the music division at Drury Lane will close down.

I have now recommended to the National Service Entertainment Board that live entertainment provided by ENSA for troops at home should cease at the same time.

It is safe to assume that by late summer 1946 the existing NAAFI-ENSA organisation will have been replaced by some other arrangement to take care of troops' entertainment needs during the occupation."

PADRES PLACATED
Atlanta, Georgia, Jan. 4. Dr. Louis Newton, Baptist Pastor, said that he received a copy of a letter written by President Truman who "disassociated" himself from remarks about Protestant chaplains allegedly made by Brig-General Harry Vaughan, Truman's Aide.

Baptist leaders said that Vaughan's statements reflected on military service Protestant chaplains. Associated Press.

GEN. BRANN'S FUNERAL
Vienna, Jan. 4. Gen. Mark W. Clark, commanding U.S. forces in Austria, announced the appointment of Brig-General Ralph Tate as deputy commander, succeeding Maj-General Donald W. Brann, who was killed in a motor accident. Brann had been a prisoner of war in Germany.

London, Jan. 4. The Resident Governor of the Tower of London said that Rudolph Hess was imprisoned there three days after his flight to Britain in 1941. Hess is being tried as a war criminal at Nuremberg. Associated Press.

Remote Control And New Air Training

Atlantic City, Jan. 4. Remote control already has eliminated much of the danger of test flying new planes, Navy officials said today, as well as opening new possibilities for training pilots and gunners for the age of super-speeds in air warfare.

The Navy demonstrated publicly for the first time at its air station near here the taking off, manoeuvring and landing of combat aircraft by radio, using a 7-ton Grumman POF Helicat. Complete control of planes by radio usually is limited to small target ships, of which the Navy bought more than 18,000 during the war.

The art of remote control has gone far beyond that now. Cmdr. Moulton B. Taylor, of Langley, Washington, officer in charge of pilotless aircraft development, said:

The Navy showed for the first time, for example, its remotely controlled jet target plane, using a 120-pound turbo-jet engine 9-1/2 inches in diameter made by Westinghouse. This plane is launched from a mother ship, and control is taken over by a fighter plane. The purpose of the jet "drone" is to give gunners, and later on pilots, of jet propelled fighters, practice against aircraft having speeds in ranges well beyond that possible in target planes using conventional engines.

REAL TARGETS
The Navy is converting 100 war-weary fighters into "drones" for use in realistic dog-fights in which the trainee pilot can actually shoot down his simulated enemy instead of merely recording his shots on photographic film.

Such training will replace shooting at towed sleeve targets, officials said, because it provides the realism of a manoeuvring target and a final check on the effect of the pilot's marksmanship. The control plane can be taken away, or the "drone" can be controlled from the ground.

Navy officers were particularly enthusiastic about the use of remote control in testing new planes. Radio control has been used for that to some extent already, and has shown that it is possible literally to tear a plane apart in flight beats without losing either the pilot or the resulting data. Information on performance and stresses is radioed back to the station from automatic devices in the plane. Associated Press.

Conspiracy Reports All Poppycock

Frankfurt, Jan. 4. Judge Simon Rifkind, advisor on Jewish affairs to General MacArthur, United States Commander in the European theatre, described as "poppycock" reports of a "worldwide conspiratorial arrangement" behind the infiltration of Polish Jews into the American zone.

Rifkind, at a press conference, said he was giving only his personal views on the statements made yesterday by Lieut-General Sir Frederick E. Morgan, Chief of the U.N.R.R.A. operations in Germany, who expressed the belief that a secret Jewish organization was sponsoring the infiltration from the East. Rifkind said that of those he had questioned nearly all were leaving Poland under a sense of compulsion—genuine or imagined.

"The predominant factor in the flight from Poland is fear," Morgan had said. "Jews arriving from Poland are certainly not look like persecuted people."

He added: "I believe they have got a positive plan to get out of Europe." Rifkind said "the Jews fleeing from Poland are, or believe they are, fleeing for their lives." Associated Press.

Chungking's Black List

St. Louis, Jan. 4. The "St. Louis Post Dispatch," commenting editorially on reports that certain American reporters have been barred from China by the Chungking government, said that at least one and perhaps others are on the Chungking black list as sympathetic to the Chinese Communists at Yenan.

The paper said that there are plenty of publicists in China who are presenting the case of the Chungking government to the American public.

It again emphasised that Chiang Kai-shek is operating a military dictatorship in China and not a democracy.

"He is not content with close censorship of outgoing dispatches about his government but now bars distinguished reporters who want to lay the whole story of China before their readers. Since Chiang Kai-shek has the help of American armaments and diplomatic support he should be told by the State Department that the American people do not look kindly on his attempts to control the press." Associated Press.

1946 CARS IN MAKING

Detroit, Jan. 4. A limited production of 1946 model passenger automobiles has been resumed in about half the nation's factories.

Ford, Chrysler and Hudson, which closed on Friday night, were among the plants returning to production. Supplementing the output were the Studebaker and Willys Overland which reopened after many weeks following a settlement of labour difficulties in the plant of a major parts supplier. Associated Press.

MANNERHEIM BACK

Heidelberg, Jan. 4. Field Marshal Baron Carl Gustav, Mannerheim, president of Finland, returned Thursday from a long rest in Portugal. Associated Press.

London, Jan. 4. The Resident Governor of the Tower of London said that Rudolph Hess was imprisoned there three days after his flight to Britain in 1941. Hess is being tried as a war criminal at Nuremberg. Associated Press.

Eastern Tipped
For League Title

The opening games of the Re-habilitation Football League will be played this afternoon when three games are down for decision with the best probably that between 44 R.M. Commandos and Royal Air Force.

Both 44 Cde. and the Air Force teams have been seen in action here in exhibition football games and the majority of the players are well-known to followers of the game. The Commando team have lost several players, but have no shortage of reserves and are able to field a more than useful side.

Air Force will probably be fielded in the team which beat Combined Chinese some time ago. Royal Engineers should have little difficulty against Civilian "B". The latter team has had little practice, but included in the side are a number of players who figured prominently in the Senior League prior to the war.

Engineers will be without Laws, their goal keeper, who is making good recovery after his accident some time ago. The Sappers have a strong side and several of their players have represented Army in exhibition games here. Wise, the Capt. will be seen as wing half with Thorne, who has sides being a good player is also a first class referee, as centre forward.

Royal Engineers will be represented by the following in their game against Civilian "B": Townley, Brazier and Harris; (Capt.) Ross, Humphreys, Thorne, Lamb and McLaughlin. Reserve: Campbell.

Eastern are not favourites for the title even at this early stage as they have most of their old pre-war players and a number of Sing Tao stars.

They have been further strengthened by the return of Chang Kam-hoi, Hou King-neng and Tang Kwong-nam.

Navy are uncertain of their line-up owing to duties and ship movements but are confident of fielding a side that should give Eastern a good game.

The following are to-day's games:
Civilian "B" v. R.E. (Navy ground 3.30 p.m.)
Referee: A. C. Roberts; Linesmen: C. P. Rogers and E. Noble.
Navy "A" v. Eastern A.A. (Schoonung ground 3.30 p.m.)
Referee: L. A. C. Anderson; Linesmen: Lieut. L. G. Young and F. A. Barretto.

44 R.M. Commandos v. R.A.F. (Chatham road ground 3.30 p.m.)
Referee: A. McGilchrist; Linesmen: A. Adhead and A. N. Othor.

GOLFERS' RECORD

Los Angeles, Jan. 4.
"Lord" Byron Nelson, who opens the 1946 professional golfing campaign here in the Los Angeles Open, has established the amazing record of having been a money-winner in 102 consecutive tournaments over a four-year period. His total 1945 war bond winnings were $66,000, far ahead of the field.

Joe McShaden finished second for the year with $44,200 and Ben Hogan was third with $27,425. Golf association officials said $500,000 has been assured for prize money in 1946 tournaments. The boys played for $375,000 in 1945. Associated Press.

KWONG WAH TEAM

The team to represent Kwong Wah in the League football game tomorrow against Navy "B" on Recreation ground at 3.30 p.m. will be chosen from: Li Kwok-kee, Wong Shui-kee, Ho Kar-keung, Yung Tse-tung, Lau Chung-kwan, Lau Chung-sung, (Chairman) Yung Ki, Ho Yung-fun, Law Wing-kin, Chan Wai-sung, Fung Kwun-sing, Cheuk Shuk-kam, Chan Tak-fai and Wong King-cheung.

CHAPLAIN'S WIT

New York, Jan. 4.

Soldiers Never Drew
Their Pay

MORE THAN £6,000 IN PAY EARNED BY SOLDIERS WHO HAVE DIED IS GOING TO BE TRACED NEXT OF KIN WHO ARE ENTITLED TO IT.

It has published in the London Gazette a list of 242 casualties with credits standing in their names ranging from £190 10s. 4d. earned by Cnr. H. R. Jones, Royal Artillery, down to £1 6s. 10d. of Pte. C. Irvine, Highland Light Infantry.

Many amounts date back to 1939. A Regimental paymaster said some belonged to prisoners of war who died in captivity. In some cases it was probably partly pay accumulating while a man was in hospital. In a few cases it may have accumulated because soldiers saved pay for leave. There may also be cases where soldiers lived on money from home.

An officer of the Royal Army Pay Corps said: "This list is only part of the total. There are hundreds of cases."

PENSION FOR MRS.
ROOSEVELT

Washington, Jan. 4.
Legislation to provide an annual pension of $5,000 to Mrs. Anna Eleanor Roosevelt, widow of the late president, has been approved by the House Pensions Committee. Associated Press.

Born in Kiev in 1904, Horowitz was living in Paris at the outbreak of the European war in 1939 and came to this country. He and his wife, daughter of Arturo Toscanini, have lived in Beverly Hills for four years. Associated Press.

WHOSE SON?

Prague, Jan. 4.
Security authorities are hunting a mystery man tentatively identified as a son of Hermann Goering. The fugitive escaped from a prisoner of war transport after it crossed the Polish frontier. Goering, twice married, has two daughters, but it had not been previously reported that he had a son. In calling the manhunt, the ministry of interior suggested he would try to flee back across Czechoslovakia. Associated Press.

Reuter adds that enquiries made in Prague failed to elicit confirmation that the boy arrested in the Czech capital might be Hitler's son. The authorities said they had not been informed of any arrest from which such a conclusion might be drawn.

Reports from Nuremberg said the police in Bohemia had arrested a 12-year-old boy stated to bear a striking resemblance to the boy whose photograph was found with Hitler's marriage certificate and last testament.

DIDN'T INTEREST HIM

Manila, Jan. 4.
A Japanese witness named Takatsu today testified that Homma, his former chief, must have seen the "death march" order and must have known complete details about conditions in prisoner of war camps in the Philippines in 1942, when hundreds of Americans and Filipinos were dying in them.

He said General Homma had "a very thin interest" in the captives. Takatsu said Homma's headquarters at Balanga on Bataan was less than 500 yards from the death march route and he said Homma travelled down the highway 20 miles to his new headquarters at Lamo at the time the prisoners were marching northward. Many dying and being killed along the road. Associated Press.

BRITAIN'S LEAD

London, Jan. 4.
Surveying the world's general outlook in a special article to-day, the movement of Publicist says of India: "For the British people before long, this prodigious problem may well loom above everything else. We will be confronted with a realm that splits the sub-continent to the base. The cohesive agency of British leadership in still the torch of the arch. Without the wise power and progressive influence, India to-day would be incapable of unity, or of independence." Reuter.

SURPRISE PACKET

Hagerstown, Maryland, Jan. 4.
A big wooden box with the top securely nailed down arrived here from Japan and the mother and daughter of the house worked half a day to pry it open. All the box contained was a note from the U.S. customs office: "Removed one Japanese machine gun." Associated Press.

1946 Year Of Opportunity

New York, Jan. 3.
American business leaders predict that 1946 will be a year of tremendous opportunities for civilian production in many lines. But they tempered their optimism with recognition of the labour, reconversion and other problems confronting them as they entered the new year.

The head of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, after speaking of "the great market awaiting us," declared: "The immediate future is neither clear nor bright." He said: "Effective steps are not being taken on a national scale to meet the wave of strikes and unrest."

Other business leaders pointed to the great reservoir of consumer needs as a bright factor on the business horizon. Associated Press.

HUSH-HUSH MISSION

Honolulu, Jan. 4.
Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault left Hickam field by air for the Orient after telling newsmen curtly that he is returning to China "as a private citizen." There has been conjecture about his possible role in a Chinese air force training programme. Associated Press.
